Sunday, April 30 – Janet Trinkle's "Shapes – Painting with Flowers" class. Local botanical artist Janet Trinkle returns to teach the arrangement of pressed flowers, with an emphasis on pansies, in whimsical presentations. Cost for the 1-3 pm session is $30 and includes pressed flora and frames.

Mark Your Calendar for May and June

May 5-7 – Goldrush Writers Conference in Mokelumne Hill. $185. Writers workshops with famed writer guides – includes Friday picnic supper, Saturday dinner, and Sunday luncheon. goldrushwriters.com.

May 11 – Thursday evening, 7 pm. Lucy Sanna, author of The Cherry Harvest, will speak about her novel's historical setting, the 1940s WWII era in the US, when German prisoners of war worked the cherry orchards and the drama one family experiences as a result. FREE.

May 18-21 – Jumping Frog Jubilee and County Fair - MWP has an author table in the Professional Art Building. Stop by and say hello to your local authors and poets.

Saturday, June 17 – Manzanita Writers Press and The Calaveras Chronicle host California Poet Laureate Dana Gioia at the Angels Camp Museum Carriage House from 12-4 pm. Reception at noon. The event is FREE, but donations will be accepted at the door to support Butte Fire publications, website, and other MAE projects. The new print anthology, Out of the Fire, launches that day and books will be available for purchase. Contributors will be there to read and share their work. Photographers and artists who are featured in the publication will have prints available for sale. Help support the publication by contributing to the Out of the Fire Kickstarter campaign.

Spring Book Launch for Entente, Stephen Archer's second book in his Irish Clans series. Searchers, the first book in the series, is available at MAE.
