

Photoshop Editing & Design Workshop

Presented by Graphic Designer
Connie Strawbridge

Monday, March 21 & April 18, 2016 • 6:30 – 8:30 pm • $20

Connie Strawbridge has been a graphic designer for 35 years, working with magazines, ad agencies, the Calaveras County Arts Council and as a freelance designer. She is currently the Marketing Director for Manzanita Writers Press, as well as a book designer.

Would you like to know how to manipulate your images for print and web?

This is a class on the basics of photo editing and design using Photoshop and other digital editing programs.

You'll come away with the ability to provide your work in the correct form for all purposes.

This class is perfect for artists, business owners and anyone who'd like to solve the resolution mystery and to learn to use Photoshop as a design tool, or to see if it's the right program for you.

Come to class with your laptop or without. Connie will be offering ongoing digital design workshops.

Register for the class online at manzapress.com or give us a call at MAE.

Drop-ins are welcome, subject to space limitations.
