Capturing and Preserving the Stories of Our Elders

The third session in this series offers new activities to unearth the often-hidden golden nuggets of remembrances. Teacher-guide Sally Kaplan, writer, editor, and film and television producer, leads participants in writing exercises to remember specific places, relationships to historical events, and reveal the individuality of each life story.

In a relaxed cooperative workshop setting, participants spend time in the recall and writing of memories. A focus on Calaveras County, its history and participants' place in it, serves as the overarching theme.

This project has been made possible through a generous grant from the Calaveras Community Foundation.
